AGREED MOTION TO AMEND THE SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiff, the Defendants, and the Defendant-Intervenors file this Agreed Motion to Amend the Scheduling Order and would respectfully show:

This Court entered a scheduling order in the above-styled case on January 5, 2021. (Dkt. 33). Under the scheduling order, the deadline for Defendants to file “any dispositive motions concerning standing or res judicata” is on or before February 25, 2021. (Dkt. 33 at ¶ 5). The parties jointly request that the Court amend the scheduling order to extend the deadline for Defendants to file any dispositive motions concerning standing or res judicata until March 8, 2021.

As a result of the ongoing winter weather emergency across the state of Texas, the parties have agreed to reschedule the deposition of the corporate representative(s) of Plaintiff SFFA from February 17 to February 26, 2021. The rescheduling of this deposition became necessary due to the widespread power outages in Austin impacting Defendants’ counsel. The requested amendment is intended to allow the deposition to be moved without limiting Defendants’ ability to make use of the deposition in any dispositive motions concerning standing or res judicata.

The amendment of the scheduling order requested will not impact the date of trial, and no other alteration of the deadlines contained in the scheduling order is sought. A proposed order is attached.

The requested amendment to the scheduling order is not for purposes of delay but so that justice may be done.

Respectfully Submitted,

GRAVES DOUGHERTY, HEARON & MOODY, P.C.
